There are three ways to add works to your ORCID record yourself:

- 1) Add works by direct import from other systems (CrossRef, DataCite, Scopus...) – Recommended -
- 2) Import via BibTeX
- 3) Add works manually

The screenshot shows a web interface for managing research works. At the top, there is a dark grey header with a dropdown menu labeled "Works (2)". To the right of this header are four buttons: "+ Add works", "Export works", "Bulk edit", and "Sort". Below the header, there is a grey bar with a "Sources" tab and a "Close sources" button. A dropdown menu is open from the "+ Add works" button, showing three options: "Search & link" (highlighted in green), "Import BibTeX", and "Add manually". The main content area displays a work titled "ORCID: a system to uniquely identify rese" with a date of "2012-10-01" and a DOI of "10.1087/20120404". At the bottom of the work entry, there is a "Regional University" label, a "Make preferred" button, and a share icon.

Which search & link wizard(s) should you choose? Select one that matches your geographic or subject areas of research.

With «Search & link» you connect to external databases
